Con*Quest Journals™ Introduces Fandom Inspired Journals

Fangirl artist Tracey Gurney designs Companion and Hunter's Journals

Indianapolis, IN, May 14, 2015 – Con*Quest Journals™ is proud to announce a new line of fandom based journals designed by fangirl artist Tracey Gurney of TAG Graphics. The first two new releases, the Hunter's Journal and the Companion's Journal, will be available for the first time at Phoenix Comicon May 28 to 31 in the Con*Quest Journals booth 15066.

Con*Quest Journals commissioned Tracey to create new interior pages as well as special custom binder covers. The Hunter's and Companion's journals, made especially for the capturing attendees' experiences at cons, are based on two of their shared favorite fandoms and bring a new edge to the Con*Quest Journals product line.

"We wanted to create something special and unique that resonated with our favorite fandoms," says Shelley Harper, partner at Con*Quest. "We knew that Tracey was just the artist to help us do that because she shares the same love for these shows and brings such an authentic depth to the designs."

The new journals will each have 20 designed pages to capture quotes, autographs, photos and artwork. They will also contain two protective sleeves and a business card page and be housed in custom created binders. Individual extra pages, sleeves and pockets will be available in the Con*Quest Journal booth at each show. Their convention schedule can be found here: <http://conquestjournal.com/where-is-it/>.

"I am excited to work on something new and I think the con journals are a great idea," says Tracey. "I created the designs as a fan, for the fans, and I wanted these journals to make a personal connection with them."

"Who knew that our chance meeting of Tracey at a Horrorhound convention in 2012 would turn into the launch of our most inspired journals yet?" says Shelley.

The new journals will be available for pre-order and shipping on the website May 14 at www.conquestjournal.com.
