Warner Bros. Consumer Products and Warner Bros. Television Partner with Con*Quest Journals For Harry Potter™ and Fantastic Beasts™ Licensed Journals and Accessories

Indianapolis, IN, September 1, 2018 – Warner Bros. Consumer Products and Warner Bros. Television partnering with Con*Quest Journals, creator of journals and accessories to collect and protect fandom memories, today announced the creation of a new line of Harry Potter™ and Fantastic Beasts™ branded planners, journals, stickers and social stationery through a license with Warner Bros. Consumer Products.

With a fan-centric focus, the new Harry Potter line will be introduced with a 2019 Weekly Planner. This 7” x 9” spiral bound planner includes your favorite Hogwarts™ classes and four sheets of House stickers with which to decorate your weeks and months. Available for pre-order at conquestjournal.com, the planners will ship to customers beginning in late October.

Taking a turn to the Dark Arts™, Con*Quest Journals has also developed a set of seven journals featuring Death Eater™ masks. Lined, dot grid, graph and plain pages comprise the assortment, all housed in a collectible Death Eater™ box. Also available for pre-order at conquestjournal.com today, the notebooks will ship to customers beginning in late October.

“As a Slytherin™ and passionate Harry Potter fan, developing this product line is a dream come true,” said Shelley Harper, co-Founder at Con*Quest Journals. “We have a vision for more completely unique journals and creative accessories that we hope Harry Potter and Fantastic Beasts fans will love as much as we do, bringing a little magic to their plans and experiences.”
