Gen Con® and Con*Quest Journals Announce License Agreement for Gaming Journals

INDIANAPOLIS (March 11, 2015) Gen Con and Con*Quest Journals have announced that the companies have signed a licensing agreement for the production of a Gen Con branded Con*Quest Adventure Journal, tote bag, mini journal, and tabletop gaming pages.

"We received incredible support from the Gen Con community and attendees last year during our launch." said Shelley Harper, Con*Quest Journals partner and Indiana native. "We knew that we wanted to design a special journal for this show and are so thrilled to be working with Gen Con to create licensed merchandise that will enhance each attendee's experience."

The Gen Con Con*Quest Adventure Journal will feature the Gen Con logo on a handcrafted canvas binder and include designed pages based on feedback gathered from the gaming community. It will feature 30 pages for notes, demos, photos and more, plus protective sleeves, a business card page, zipper pouch and Sharpie. Additionally, a custom long handled tote bag and mini journal will complete the set. Attendees can capture every moment of the "Best Four Days in Gaming" in one place. Once the design has been finalized, all merchandise will be available for pre-order.

"Con*Quest Journals have created an exciting product based on feedback from convention attendees," said Megan Culver, Gen Con's Director of Exhibitor Relations. "We feel these journals will preserve classic Gen Con memories and are happy to have the Con*Ouest Journals team as a partner."
